	Subject	Action
1	Any Matters Arising The memorial for Rodney will be a nice clock we all felt it would be his wish to improve on the one we have now. It is also known that the Teston Golf Society will be holding a golf day. The Chairman informed us that he had written a letter to Mick Pullen, which he delivered by hand and spoke to him personally. And on behalf of the Club said that the Club were appalled at what had happened
2	Correspondence (GW) A letter was read out from Mr Alan Button regarding the safety of staff at the Club, especially bar staff late at night this matter as been ongoing for some time, it was agreed to attend to this matter.
3	New Members (GW) Kevin Wise. Paul Pascoe. Nicola Symonds. Tom Mckirdy
4	Finance (RH) Informed us that the bar takings were on a par with last year, which is an improving situation over the past few months, and is good news in these difficult financial times.
5	Secretary (GW) None
6	Bar (TS) Spoke about our new steward Damien and the fact his trial period is fast approaching, it was unanimously felt he had done a good job and we should hire him on a permanent basis. House (MH) Informed us that lighting checks are ongoing a few faults were found and would be corrected.

7	The brick work at the rear of the building had been fixed and a big thanks to Mark Martin for doing this for the club. He also went on to say he had received quotes for the car park repair he was waiting for two more. The new heating system is in hand for next year. Entertainments. No member of this subcommittee was able to attend this meeting. The chairman said we should wait till the new committee was in place to sort out our problems in this area. The pickled onion competition will be on the 21st of December at 5 O'clock followed by our Grand Christmas draw at 7 O'clock.
8	Any Other Business None. There being no other Business the Meeting closed at 8.31 pm Steve Worcester Chairman_____
