ADOPTION OF PREVIOUS MINUTES:

Proposed: (MM)

Seconded: (SP)

	Subject	Action
1	Any Matters Arising (SP) Said he had spoken to members about coming straight from work to the Club in a dirty condition he felt things have improved somewhat.
2	Correspondence (GW) Passed two letters to the Chairman for him to read out Both letters were from the same member. The first letter concerned the clash between the Committee meeting deferred from the last bank holiday and a Teston golf society meeting and meal after a golf day out (MM) Told the meeting the society were aware of the clash and it had been suggested that the golf meeting should be held in the Gamesroom.. . The second letter was about a member selling produce in the Club, the secretary would reply to both letters	(GW)
3	New Members (GW) Stephen Barrett.
4	Finance (RH) .Our finances are down £2000 but put in context with last years record takings the treasurer feels we are in a sound position.
5	Secretary (GW) None
6	Bar (TS) The small price increase was implemented with very little complaint that was all bar had to report.

7 House

(TS) All the finishing work to the clubs refurbishment is now complete The new blinds for the lounge are awaiting delivery

(RH) Said we must bring in a decorator to look at the outside of the Club to make sure it is in good condition for coming year

(TS) Said that all the security on the bar, plus all passwords and codes are in order. It was agreed that Steve Worcester would stay as a main key holder for emergencies.(GW) Would speak to Damien or Paul Bettles about pictures

8 Entertainments.

(SP) Felt he was not getting enough support from he's fellow members of the entertainments committee The committee would like to apologise for the late cancellation of the barbeque on Derby day this was due to unforeseen circumstances.

9 Any Other Business

(TS) Said he had been approached for a wake to be held in the club after a long discussion it was felt as the family concerned were not members this would be inappropriate and would lead to us hiring the club out this has never been done we could not allow this.

Meeting closed at 8.25pm
